guests were received at the door by Mrs. J. D. Tuggle and each registered in a Guest Book.

The honoree was led by Cupid, little Miss Marys Newitt, down the "Rocky Road to Matrimony" where they removed the "rocks" which were many beautiful and useful gifts.

Several songs by Miss Alice Metcalf, accompanied by Miss May Bing ham, both of Pineville, were artisi-tically rendered and greatly enjoyed.

A source of great fun was the giving of advice to the bride-to-be by the Experienced and the In-experienced. Much of this advice, given in light or serious vein, would no doubt, go far in the solution of "How to be Happy tho married."

At noon a beautiful buffet lunchoon in two courses, was served from the dining room. Mrs. R. H. Newitt and Mrs. H. H. Owens presided over chafing dishes, assisted by Misses Emoline Sampson, Ruby Putnam, Gladys Johnson and Myra Amis.
Mrs. C. F. Rathfon served coffee and iced tea from the tea wagon.
The fees were wedding bells and bride's slippers.

Those included in Mrs. Black's hospitality were: Mesdames Vernon

Torpid Liver

Black-Draught "has no equal for headache, sour stomach, torpid liver and feverish colds..." declares Mrs. Annie Whitmore, of Gate City, Va. "It is easy to take and does not gripe, as a lot of medicines do," she adds.
"It is good to take in a hot tea for colds, or can be taken in a dry powder. I can't say enough for Black-Draught and the sickness it has saved us."

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT has been found a valuable liver medicine, in thousands of homes.

"I do not use any other liver medicine," says Mrs. Mary O.
Brown, of Europa, Miss. "It is splendid for sour stomach, a bad taste in the mouth or torpid liver. I keep it all the time, use it with the children and feel it has saved us many dollars in doctor bills and many days in bed."

HOW TO BECOME A NURSE

Any woman with intelligence and "motherly" instinct can learn to be a practical nurse and earn from fifteen to twenty-five dollars a week.
If you cannot spend three years in a hospital or are past the hospital age, study a common-sense book, called "Nursing in the Home," by Lee H. Smith, M. D. This book is written in a way that is easy to comprehend. It will teach you how to recognize different diseases; how to take temperature; how to take care of fever patients; how to give baths; all about the sick room. It treats of burns and scalds, broken limbs, bleeding from wounds (bandaging), drowning, fainting—almost every contingency is covered.

Many pages are devoted to Hygiene, Anatomy, Physiology and Medicine. It contains advice for mothers and tells how to care for infants.

This 500-page book, bound in handsome red cloth, is worth $2.00 but for a limited time can be acquired by sending fifty cents to the publishers, World's Medical Press, 652 Washington Street, Buffalo, N.

his primitive world, whose social standards were 200 years behind the times. Drinking, and carousing, gambling, cock fighting and horse racing, young Jackson never took a dare, the rude sport once staking his horse and his all on a throw of the dice. A bully among rowdies, he went his roystering way along a road that is not to be laid down on the map of conduct as a course to the White House.

As he rose from a chore boy and a saddler's apprentice to be a lawyer and a judge of the Supreme court of Tennessee, he cast aside the dissipations of his careless youth, but he never lost the spirit of the clansman or subdued his ungovernable temper.

A bare catalog of his quarrels and fights is too long to be given here. In most of them he was fired with the conviction that he was defending the name of his wife. This had been brought into question only by his own characteristic imprudence, when he fell in love with his landlady's daughter, while she was yet married to another, and when he rashly wed her without waiting to verify the mere rumor that her offended husband had obtained a divorce in a neighboring state. After two years of wedded life, the too hasty couple learned that the woman's first marriage had only just been dissolved and they had to make spectacle of themselves as they went through another ceremony in order to united in lawful bonds.

Because his own impulsive conduct had exposed his honest, devoted to the slanderous tongues of the world, Jackson was all the more sensitive to her sufferings. For sneering

Save Money—Put Goodyear Tires on Your Small Car

Avoid disappointment with tires made to be sold at sensationally cheap prices by using Goodyear Tires built to deliver maximum mileage at minimum cost.

The high relative value built into Goodyear Tires, of the 30 x 3-, 30 x 3½-, and 31 x 4-inch sizes, results from the application of Goodyear experience and care to their manufacture in the world's largest tire factory devoted to these sizes.

Such facts explain why more cars, using these sizes, were factory-equipped last year with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

If you drive a Ford, Chevrolet, Maxwell or
